GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
TOURISM
LOK SABHA

UNSTARRED QUESTION NO:1350
ANSWERED ON:26.11.2001
OFFICES OF INDIAN INSTITUTE OF TOURISM AND TRAVEL MANAGEMENT
Y.G. MAHAJAN

Will the Minister of TOURISM be pleased to state:

(a) whether offices/centres of Indian Institute of Tourism and Travel Management are functioning in different parts of the country;

(b) if so, the yardsticks and norms laid down for opening the centres/offices;

(c) whether the Government are considering to open the centres/offices of the said institute in Jalgaon district of Maharashtra with a view to facilitate tourists coming in Ajanta Ellora;

(d) if so, the time by which the above offices/centres would become functional; and

(e) if not, the reasons therefor?

Answer

MINISTER OF TOURISM & CULTURE (SHRI JAGMOHAN)

(a): Yes, Sir. One branch of IITTM is functioning at Bhubaneswar apart from the main centre of IITTM at Gwalior.

(b): There are no set yardsticks or norms for opening the centres/offices of the Institute.

(c): No, Sir.

(d): Does not arise.

(e): No such proposal is there for the time being.